

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

George Fox, 65, 6050 Woodlawn av., asphyxiated. Accidental.

Chief Gleason ordered police to enforce ordinance against saloon signs. "Ladies" and "Family" entrance signs must go.

Morgan Park voting on annexation today.

Agnes Schengal, 25, 1518 Bissel st., died from ptomaine poisoning. Canned corn. Mother and father ill.

Peter Hopeki, 14, 751 N. Racine st., struck by street car. Badly bruised.

Adolph Rickman, 1511 Carroll av., arrested after battle with three members of vice squad. Slashed Officer McDonald's cheek. Charged with assault.

James McVittie not guilty. Was charged with attempting to kill Albert G. D. Mercer.

$500,000 paid by 12,000 in county treasurer's office yesterday.

Auto of Pascal Sylvester plunged down viaduct in Evanston. Sylvester escaped uninjured.

F. Olafka, 25, 1518 Maxwell st., died from burns received from fall into vat of Great Northern Plating Works.

Widow gets bulk of $500,000 estate of Claude Seymour.

Election of Hugo Krause, 21st Ward, contested. Wm. F. Schofield, Democrat, asks recount.

Investigation on $1,000,000 voting machine contract reopened. Election commissioners to tell what took place while purchase of voting machines was under discussion.

Mrs. Mary Welsh, 86, 1642 E. 70th st., stumbled from chair. Dead.

Mrs. Wiedma Walling, who kidnapped 6-year-old son, freed by judge. Woman told to get permission to see boy.

$40,000 worth of electrotypes stolen from De Laurence Scott & Co. office, 117 N. Wabash av.

Ass't Fire Marshal Arthur Seyferlich's auto skidded. Crashed into curb. Fire marshal slightly hurt.

Two women to contest will of Frederick J. Boselly, former president of Royal Baking Powder Co. First wife claims she was not legally divorced.

George Larson, 11164 N. Clark st., robbed. $20 and watch. James McCormick and Richard Richmond held.

University coe-eds to participate in suffrage parade.

$500,000 suit filed by Harry M. McCaskrin against L. M. Gagill, William Jackson, E. Sturtz and Harold A. Weld. Conspiracy alleged to discredit candidacy. Indicted for assault and intent to kill when running for state's attorney.

Frank McAuliffe, pipeman, Auxiliary Squad No. 1, presented Harrison-Tree gold medal. Saved 3 persons from burning building, 731 N. Dearborn st. 9 other firemen honorably mentioned.

Omar C. Harris, 27 W. Washington av., attacks constitutionality of state employment agency law. Seeks damages from state inspector.

Ald. Frank McDermott, 28th ward, charged with selling liquor to minor from his saloon, 5443 S. Halsted st. Case continued until May 7.

Contempt charges against nine members of School Board held in abeyance until Friday. New subpoenas served on Peter Reinberg, president, and Lewis Larson, secretary of board.

Carle C. Quale, bankrupt. Liabilities $2,000. Claims rescue of 33 white slave victims proved financial undoing.

Body found in Desplaines river identified as William Thomas, 17, 3350 Paulina st.

Hotel Blackstone backs down. Will give list of permanent guests to assessors.

250 saloons involved in today's elections in 35 downstate cities.

Frank McIntosh captured in Joliet. Wanted here for theft of auto and passing checks.

Stetson L. Horne, art dealer, 362 E. 61st st., charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. W. R.